On Europe Day, 9 May, 2015 at 7 p.m., under the high patronage of the President of the Republic of Croatia Mrs. Kolinda Grabar-Kitarović, the exhibition Bauhaus – Networking of Ideas and Practice (BAUNET) will be opened.

The exhibition (BAUNET) will present the oeuvres of artists, architects and designers from Croatia and the region who studied at the Bauhaus, the most influential international school: Otti Berger, architect Gustav Bohutinsky and Ivana Tomljenović Meller from Croatia, Avgust Černigoj from Slovenia, and architect Selman Selmanagić from Bosnia and Herzegovina. Apart from the students' works, the works of their professors, renowned artists who lectured and led workshops at the Bauhaus, will also be presented: Marcel Breuer, Wassily Kandinsky, Paul Klee, Hannes Meyer, László Moholy-Nagy, and Oskar Schlemmer. The exhibition will also include the concepts and educational methods of the School.

As the exhibition covers the period from 1919 (founding of the Bauhaus) until 1961 (erection of the Berlin Wall), it also follows and presents the influences of the Bauhaus on post-war contemporary art, design and architecture, with special focus on the group EXAT 51 from Zagreb and the architectural practice of the students of the Bauhaus – of architect Hubert Hoffmann in Graz and the B Course of Ljubljana.

The curator of the exhibition is Vesna Meštrić, Senior Curator at the MSU and Coordinator of the BAUNET project, while the attractively designed exhibition display is authored by Vladimir Končar (Studio Revolucija, Zagreb), who also authored the visual identity and the website of the BAUNET project (www.baunet-info.com).

The exhibition is accompanied by a comprehensive and richly illustrated catalogue in Croatian and English, edited by Jadranka Vinterhalter, Museum Advisor, featuring texts of twenty-six Croatian and international experts for avant-garde and modern art who participate in the BAUNET project.

Various educational programs, creative workshops for children, series of lectures and other events related to the subject of the Bauhaus and its influence in the region will be organised during the nearly three-month duration of the exhibition.

The exhibition is part of the international research project BAUNET in which cultural institutions from Austria, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Croatia and Slovenia participate. Head of the project is MSU Zagreb, and the co-organisers are Universalmuseum Joanneum from Graz, Academy of Fine Arts from Sarajevo, and Škofja Loka Museum.

The exhibition is supported by the EU programme Culture 2007-2103, Art Mentor Foundation Lucerne, Allianz Kulturstiftung, Goethe Institute from Zagreb, Zagreb City Office and the Ministry of Culture of the Republic of Croatia.
